

Introducing Veradigm™ Providing Next Generation Healthcare Solutions for Today's Healthcare Challenges

November 14, 2018

Data-driven insight and solutions

CHICAGO, Nov. 14, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Today, Allscripts (NASDAQ: MDRX) announced Veradigm as the new branding for Allscripts' Payer & Life Sciences division. Veradigm is a leader in providing data-driven health insights and analytic solutions designed to increase efficiency and help manage the cost of healthcare. Veradigm's customers include healthcare providers, the life science industry and insurers.

Today's healthcare ecosystem is demanding more from technology, while reimbursement and policy decisions continue to increase in complexity. These dynamics require out-of-the box thinking, by a company that understands where the market is trending and willing to challenge status-quo solutions. Veradigm builds upon Allscripts vast healthcare network, extending and enhancing existing solutions in bold new ways to improve the quality, to reduce cost and to increase the speed of healthcare.

"Veradigm is committed to improving healthcare and affecting positive change for patients by delivering data-driven insights and the advanced tools needed to act on them," says Tom Langan, Chief Executive Officer of Veradigm. "Delivering on that promise requires next-generation solutions that can make an impact from the point of care to everyday life. That is exactly what Veradigm was created to do."

Veradigm solutions are designed to help address many of today's most critical healthcare challenges by allowing our customers to find new ways to make a difference in patient care including:

- Managing the evolution of value-based care
- Facilitating patient medication access and affordability
- Providing new, efficient operating models for generating the real-world evidence necessary to accelerate the development of new therapies and to enhance the value of existing ones
- Accelerating research solutions cost effectively via more closely aligning research into point of care workflows

"We have worked extensively with leaders from all walks of healthcare to better understand their changing needs and to deliver solutions that create value, including next generation technology and tools for health care providers, unique real-world evidence, next generation analytic solutions, point of care connectivity, and comprehensive insights. We are confident Veradigm is positioned for success today and beyond," says Langan.
